Re: United States v. Greebel, 15-CR-0637 (E.D.N.Y.) (KAM)

Dear Judge Matsumoto:

This office represents the government in the above-captioned matter. The government writes to respectfully request a 15-day extension of time, from July 2, 2020 until July 17, 2020, to submit its response to defendant, Evan Greebel's ("Defendant"), June 12, 2020 opposition to the government's writs of continuing garnishment to garnishees Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Smith Inc. [Dkt 694] and Charles Schwab Retirement Plan Services [Dkt 703] ("Opposition"). Notwithstanding Defendant's June 12, 2020 Opposition, the parties have continued to discuss the potential resolution of these garnishment actions without the need for further litigation. The government therefore respectfully requests, with Defendant's consent, this extension until July 17, 2020 in order to conclude those discussions and submit its response to Defendant's Opposition.

This is the government's first request for an extension of time to file its response to Defendant's Opposition. The Court has previously granted four requests by Defendant, with the government's consent, to extend Defendant's deadline to file its Opposition, for a total extension of 126 days.<sup>1</sup> See Dkt 726, 728, 730 & 735. Defendant has consented to this request. There are currently no other scheduled deadlines or court appearances that will be affected should the Court approve this request.

<sup>1</sup> Prior to Feb 2, 2020, the Court had granted three extensions of time, totaling 356 days, for Defendant to submit his opposition to the writs of continuing garnishment while Defendant appealed his conviction in this matter. See Dkt 699, 708 & 720.

The government thanks the Court for its attention to this matter.

Respectfully submitted,

RICHARD P. DONOGHUE
United States Attorney
